A Splendid Racing Day and Record Time Approached.

MORKIS PARK PACE TRACK, June 10. - 11 there ever was a more perfect day for racing than to-day there has been neglect in recording The sky was clear and bright, an , though Old Soi shed burning rays on the free field visttors, the spreading roof of the grand stand afforced a coorretreat, which tooked inviting after the warm, sigsty ride from the city, The track is growing more and more popular with each day of the meeting, and, as early as 1 o'clock, one could see whole families, little ones and all, grouped together on the grand stand, enjoying the musical concert by the Tairteents Regiment Band as well as the races, and, at the same time, enjoying a pleasant afternoon outling in the pure fresh air. The card for to-day was a very good one, with two stake events, the All Breeze and the Belmont, to be decided. Both of these events promised interesting contests, for the horses in each event were very evenly matched.

The track, which has been in bad condition for the past two days, was in fine shape and almost as first as lightning. Record time was expected to be passed in some of the events. The day's sport opened with a dash of five set is a half furious, for two-ver-olds that have not won a race, and sixteen youngsters is a lightning of the statters. Accoud was are - of favorite, considering the number of starters, with McCormick sec-
